TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

By ordering any goods from the Seller, the Buyer will be deemed to accept that these Conditions take precedence over any conditions contained on or in any letter, order form, receipt of the like received by the Seller in connection with the goods so ordered and that no such other conditions will form part of the contract between the Seller and the Buyer, unless specifically agreed in writing.

1. Quotations

All quotations and tenders are given by the Seller on condition that the Seller shall not be bound until it has communicated its written acceptance of the Buyers order.

2. Cost Variation

a) Except where a price is stated to be fixed by the Seller on its written acceptance of the Buyers order any price quoted by the Seller or comprised in the order or contract is provisional only and the actual price to be paid by the Buyer shall be the Sellers price ruling at the date of dispatch.

b) All prices quoted or accepted are exclusive of value Added Tax (VAT) and the contract price shall be such prices plus VAT.

3. Payment

Goods invoiced up to and including the last day of the calendar month shall be paid for not later than the last business day of the following month. If terms of payment are not complied with the Seller shall have the right to charge interest at the rate of 1.5% for every month or part of a month between the due date of payment and the final settlement.

4. Buyers Default and Remedies

a) If any of the events specified in sub-clause 4b below occurs, the Seller may (without prejudice to any other rights against the Buyer), by giving the Buyer written notice:

(i) treat the unpaid purchase price of all goods delivered by the Seller to the Buyer as being immediately due and payable, and/or
(ii) suspend delivery of any such goods ordered by the Buyer and/or
(iii) treat any or all contracts between the Buyer and the Seller as being repudiated and claim damages (including, without limitation, the right to sue for the price of any undelivered goods specifically manufactured for the Buyer)

b) The Sellers rights under Clause 4a will arise:

(i) if the buyer fails to pay any amount when it is due under any contract with the Seller; or
(ii) if the Buyer is in breach of any contract between the Buyer and the Seller; or
(iii) if the Buyer passes a resolution or has a petition presented for its winding-up of the making of an administration against it, or has a receiver appointed over the whole or any part of its assets or (being an individual) has a bankruptcy order presented against him (or suffers any proceedings under the law of any jurisdiction in which it or he is a resident) or enters into any composition or arrangement with its creditors.

5. Delivery

a) If no time for delivery is specified in the contract, the Buyer shall be bound to accept the goods when they are ready for delivery by the Seller.

b) The risk in goods shall pass to the Buyer when the goods are delivered to the Buyer, or in accordance with his instruction. Any complaint of short delivery or of damaged goods in transit must be notified within 24 hours of receipt of goods and confirmed in writing at that time by the Buyer to the Seller and any complaint of failure to deliver goods invoiced must be so notified within 10 days of the date of invoice.

c) Each delivery will constitute a separate contract and any failure or deficit in any one delivery will not validate the contract as to the remaining deliveries.

d) Any time or date for delivery named by the Seller is an estimate only and the Seller shall not accept liability for any loss or damage or any consequential loss arising directly or indirectly from delay in delivery, however caused.

6. Ownership

The Seller and the Buyer expressly agree that until the Seller has been paid in full for any goods supplied by the Seller to the Buyer:

a) The Seller remains legal owner of the goods;
b) The Seller may recover the goods (excluding any goods where ownership of which had already passed to the Buyer) from the Buyer at any time and for that purpose the Seller, its servants and agents may enter upon any land or building upon which the goods are situated. If the Seller resells any of the goods so recovered, the Seller shall give the Buyer credit for any sum received by the Seller in excess of the sums due from the Buyer to the Seller;
c) The Buyer will store the goods in such a way that they remain clearly identifiable as the Sellers goods;
d) The Buyer may dispose of the goods in the ordinary course of its business as principal (but any warranties, conditions or representations given or made by the Buyer to any third part shall not be binding on the Seller who shall be indemnified by the Buyer with respect there to) and may pass good title in the goods to a third party being bona fide purchaser for value without notice of the Sellers rights.

e) If the Buyer incorporates the goods into other products (with the addition of its goods or those of others) or uses such goods as material for other products (with or without such additions) legal ownership of those other products is upon such incorporation or use and by that event transferred to the Seller and the provisions of sub-clauses b and d shall apply mutatis mutandis to those other products in the place of the goods.

7. Disposal before payment

If the goods or any part thereof, whether or not incorporated into other products or used as material for other products, are resold by the Buyer before he has made full payment to the Seller aforesaid, the Buyer shall hold upon trust from the Seller from the proceeds of such resale such sum as shall be equivalent to the amount owing to the Seller in respect of the goods provided that if the seller has not received the proceeds of such resale in full the Seller shall be subrogated (without the need for further documentation) to the Buyers rights against its customers to the extent of any balance still remaining due to the Seller in respect of the goods. nothing contained herein shall affect any other rights the Seller may have against the Buyers customer.

8 Warranties

a) The Seller warrants that the goods are of satisfactory quality and that they comply with any description or specification supplied by the Seller.

b) The Seller gives no warranty that the goods are suitable for any particular purpose or for use under any specific conditions, unless has expressly warranted the goods suitably in writing.

c) Save, as stated, the Seller accepts all liability under any warranty expressed or implied, statutory or otherwise.

d) If the Buyer alleges and goods fail to comply with the warranty given, it shall return the goods to the Seller which, after it has had reasonable time to investigate and examine the goods may:

(i) replace the goods, or
(ii) accept the return of the goods and credit the Buyer with the purchase price, or

(iii) make the Buyer an allowance representing the difference between the value of the goods at the time of the complaint by the Buyer and the value they would have had if they had been in accordance with the contract, providing the Buyer pays the balance not in dispute according to normal terms

e) Goods shall not be returned without prior agreement between the Buyer and the Seller. No claim can be entertained after the goods or any part of thereof have been processed in this way.

9. Limitation of the Sellers liability

a) Except as otherwise expressly mentioned in these conditions, the Seller shall have no liability of any kind to the Buyer in respect of any loss or damage (whether direct, indirect or consequential) suffered by the Buyer, whether in contract or negligence or otherwise howsoever, other than for death or personal injury to the extent that it is caused by the negligence of the Seller, its employees or agents.

b) No forbearance or indulgence by the Seller whether in respect of these Conditions or otherwise shall in any way affect of prejudice the rights of the Seller against the Buyer or be taken as a waiver of any of these Conditions.

10. Force majeure, etc.

The performance of all contracts is subject to variation or cancellation by the Seller owing to any act of God, war, strikes, Government regulations or orders, national emergencies, lock-outs, fire, flood, drought, tempest or any other cause (whether or not of a like nature) beyond the control of the Seller or owing to any inability by the Seller to procure materials or articles held responsible for any inability to deliver caused by such contingency.

11. Governing law

The law of England shall govern the validity, construction and performance of any contract to which these Conditions apply.

12. Data Protection Act 1998

By accepting these Conditions, the Buyer acknowledges that the Seller has advised the Buyer that the Seller may keep personal information about the Buyer on computer or in manual records for accounts and credit reference agencies and other organisations.
